

1. Why is it important for company officers to familiarize themselves with buildings and facilities in their district through inspections? (315)
2. Under what circumstances can inspection personnel enter private property for fire and life safety inspections without the occupant's consent? (316)
3. What constitutes implied permission for fire and emergency responders to enter private property under common law and statutory law? (316)
4. According to organizational SOPs, what are company officers responsible for when identifying hazardous conditions? (317)
5. What action might an inspector take if a business fails to achieve code compliance after repeated violations? (318)
6. Prior to fire and life safety inspections, personnel should drive the unit around the facility, or the block on which it is located in order to (320)
7. What should the company officer review with the representative before starting the inspection tour? (320)
8. What is emphasized about the pattern for conducting fire inspections? (320)
9. What are the three essential parts of a means of egress? (322)
10. What potential hazards can workplace trash and litter accumulation create? (324)
11. What is a recommended practice for waste management to prevent fire hazards? (325)
12. What is the appropriate response if immediate threats to life safety are identified during an inspection? (328)
13. What is the primary purpose of documenting fire and life safety inspections? (329)
14. What is a key characteristic of wet-pipe sprinkler systems? (330)
15. Why are predischage alarms essential for total flooding CO2 systems? (333)
16. Which is a guideline for properly placing extinguishers? (335)
17. What is a potential hazard to emergency responders during a fire related to the physical condition of a structure? (343)

18. What is the primary purpose of meeting with the responsible party after completing a pre-incident survey? (347)
19. The success of the pre-incident planning process depends on the company officer's ability to process information and: (347)
20. What are the three major tasks associated with pre-incident planning? (350)